

Long-term Governance Proposal Summary of Program Management Responsibilities

3/28/00

CALFED Program Element	Responsibility for Program Management
Levee System Integrity	Commission -- Manage various program studies, manage interagency coordination, public involvement and integration between program elements. DWR-- Delta Subventions, Special Projects, and Emergency Preparedness
Ecosystem Restoration	New ERP Conservancy -- provides program management for the ERP.
Environmental Water Account	Undetermined-- CALFED is expected to define EWA program objectives by the time of the ROD. The appropriate governance structure will be based on program objectives.
Watershed Management	Undetermined -- CALFED is working with agency and the BDAC Watershed Workgroup to identify appropriate manager for CALFED Watershed program
Drinking Water Quality	Commission -- provides program management for the DWQ program. Direct implementation of studies, research and project management likely to be performed by state and federal agencies.
Water Management Strategy	Commission-- provide program management for WMS Framework. Includes refinement of WMS, overseeing and integrating implementation of all WMS tools, and monitoring the performance of the tools. Program management of the WMS tools is described below
Transfers Program	Commission -- provide program management. Water Transfers Information Clearinghouse-- program management undetermined. CALFED working with agency and stakeholder technical advisory team to identify appropriate manager for clearinghouse

Water Use Efficiency	Undetermined -- CALFED working with agency and stakeholder groups to identify appropriate manager for CALFED WUE program
Recycling	Undetermined -- CALFED is in the process of defining the program objectives for recycling. Once complete, the appropriate program manager will be identified.
Storage	DWR and USBR -- provide program management for their portions of the ISI program, with program direction and coordination by Commission.
Conveyance	Commission -- provide program management. State and federal agencies would provide project management.
Water Operations	DWR and USBR -- maintain program management of project operations. NMFS, USFWS, DFG retain regulatory authority under ESA. Commission provides interagency coordination, conflict resolution, and integration with other CALFED program elements.
Science / CMARP	Commission provides broad program management. State and federal agencies expected to manage portions of the program.

summarytable2.00.wpd